

Merry Christmas Pat, Jacque, and Family,

Hopefully you will enjoy looking at these paintings over the coming years. They can be a resource for a daily devotional, a weekly family home evening, a lesson, or just for meditation. For many of the paintings there is a text file with scriptural references and background. If you look up additional information and add it to these files, please forward it and the originals at <http://www.walden3d.com/photos/Art> will be updated.

Best Regards,

Roice and Andrea Nelson
